Puppy and I

I met a man as I went walking;
we got to talking,
man and I.
"Where are you going to, man?" I said (I said to the man as he went by.)
"Down to the village to get some bread.
Will you come with me?" "No, not I."

I met a horse as I went walking;
we got to talking,
horse and I.
"Where are you going to, horse, today?"
(I said to the horse as he went by.)
"Down to the village to get some hay.
Will you come with me?" "No, not I."

I met some rabbits as I went walking;
we got to talking,
rabbits and I.
"Where are you going in your brown fur coats?"
(I said to the rabbits as they went by.)
"Down to the village to get some oats.
Will you come with us?" "No, not I."

I met a puppy as I went walking;
we got to talking,
puppy and I.
"Where are you going this nice, fine day?"
(I said to the puppy as he went by.)
"Up to the hillsides to roll and play."
"I'll come with you, puppy," said I.

The fraternity at A.U. today finds itself in a strange period of transition. From within, the question of accurately defining their goals and needs is a pressing one.

Rush, this fall, was characterized by fewer people resulting in smaller pledge classes. But these pledges are a new type of student, interested and independent, aware and ready to cope with these changes. He expects more from a Greek organization than humiliation and harassment. And the Greeks are responding with meaningful programs and new ideas emphasizing scholarship, friendship, and responsibility.

The changes that are being made could almost pass unnoticed. . .

by those on the outside.

And due to lack of interest, tomorrow could be cancelled. . .

The Kennedy Political Union and The University in Revolution brought in a wide variety of speakers in the Fall. These speakers came bringing with them their own outlooks and ideas. Secretary of the Navy Chafee spoke to an audience packed with an intense group of anti-war students who bombarded him with questions in front of NBC cameras. Dotson Rader spoke on the Fragmentation of the New Left and explained why he felt the Black Panthers were the only true revolutionaries left on campuses today.

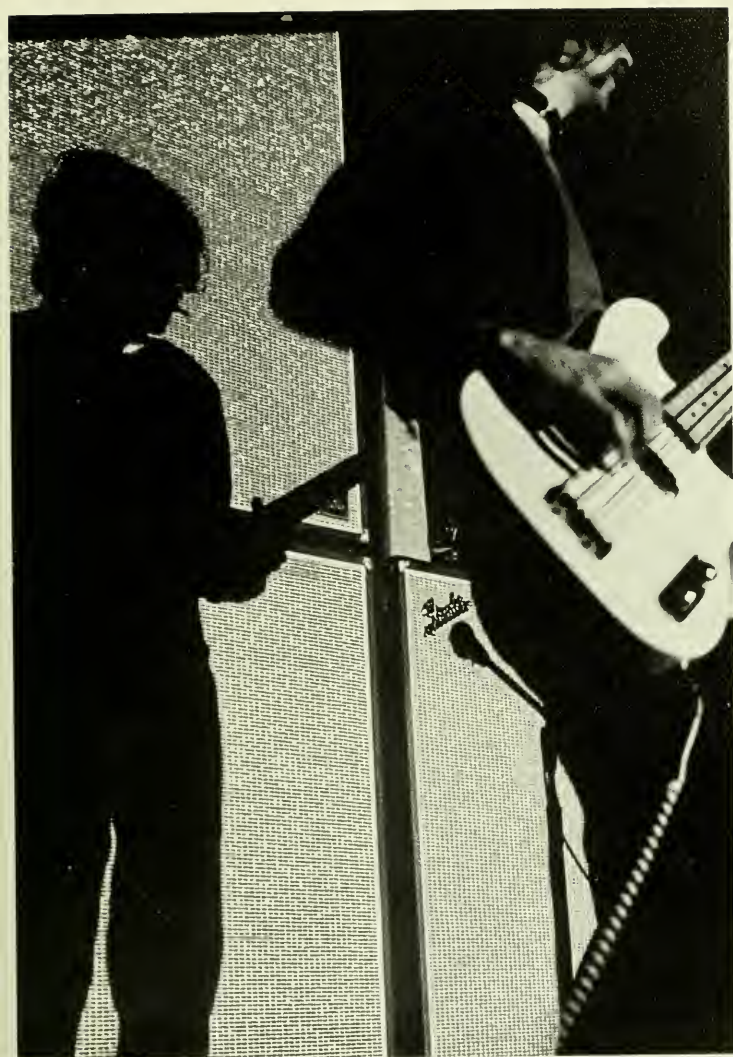

All speakers spoke to students who were committed—committed either to the speaker's viewpoint or against it or to finding out. But those that didn't care—those without commitment—stayed away, and hardly noticed the changes being made.

The student Association said the alumni were not interested. The alumni said they were never contacted . . . and as a result A.U. had no floats, queens, or dances-but rather Dustin Hoffman in The Graduate and the Steve Miller Blues Band and Mountain on Saturday night. Gary Puckett sang in Woods-Brown on Sunday afternoon to finish up a nice, if not memorable, Fall Weekend. Tim Buckley appeared the following Friday evening to carry over the mood of highlighting concert events.

All Offensive Skyrockets - Meetings Held with over 5000 in 50 Key Cities!

25,000 Are Arbs

The New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NMC) has announced that it has held over 5000 meetings in 50 key cities across the United States. These meetings were held in response to the recent offensive skyrockets launched by the military. The NMC has also announced that it has received over 25,000 letters from citizens in support of its anti-war efforts.

The NMC is a non-profit organization that was founded in 1964. It has since become one of the most prominent anti-war groups in the United States. The NMC has held numerous rallies, marches, and other public demonstrations. It has also been instrumental in the passage of the War Powers Act and the Vietnam War Veterans' Benefits Act.

The NMC continues to be active in the anti-war movement. It has recently held a series of meetings in major cities across the country. These meetings were held to discuss the recent offensive skyrockets and to plan future actions. The NMC has also announced that it will be holding a large-scale demonstration in Washington, D.C. in the near future.

You can take war out of the country, but you can't take the country out of war.

The Imaginary Invalid merged with a Sterile Cuckoo.

Moliere's Imaginary Invalid, the first show of the year, incorporated the theatre's new trend of combining dance and movement with acting. The production was an overwhelming success as the individual performances collectively made the show worthy of the community-wide praise it received, indicating that the forthcoming plays would follow along the same lines of high achievement.

Minelli's appearance on campus, with her director Alan J. Pakula, as publicity for her movie The Sterile Cuckoo attracted many curious students who were interested in hearing her viewpoints and feelings on the alienated college person—the basic theme of the film. Her intimate reflections and discussion occurred simultaneously with The Imaginary Invalid to place a garland of excitement around an otherwise routine week of the fall term.

Freshman Class Elections dragged on through the month of October, longer than the usual expectations of the candidates' constituents. Questions of legalities arose among the members of the Student Association Elections Committee through various student complaints and as a result, the outcome as to whom would emerge the Presidential and Vice-Presidential victors was delayed while thorough investigation of the issues was pursued. The arguments were placed before the student Court of General Sessions and upon appeal of the decision there and of the ethical involvements on the part of the defendant's counsellors, the case was carried to the higher Superior Court of Appeals where Chief Justice Gail Robinson and student Justices Stuart Kaufer and Luiz Simmons compiled their information to proceed with their first hearing of the term, their first matter of imposing jurisdiction since the Student Court System's initiation of last spring.

We're not exactly legal around here, but we get by.

Fall Sports aroused more than the normal interest at A.U. this year. The good weather lured fans to the Baseball Diamond, the Rugby Field, the Cross Country Trails, the Soccer Field, Women's Varsity events, and Intramurals. Baseball yielded exciting moments to those who wandered to the games; the team's record of 6 wins and 8 losses seems erroneous when considering the improving performance of the team. Rugby was again the focus of much student interest; the addition of this sport to our campus last spring has made a great contribution to the athletics of A.U. The team was successful in winning its second straight championship, being undefeated in league play for the fall season. Cross Country also evoked much enthusiasm and AU hosted major meets in D.C. Soccer fans responded to the unique feeling of rooting for an AU team with numerous victories. Intramurals displayed the usual vigor that typifies them—the Knee-Football and Football seasons added to an extensive and eventful fall sports program.

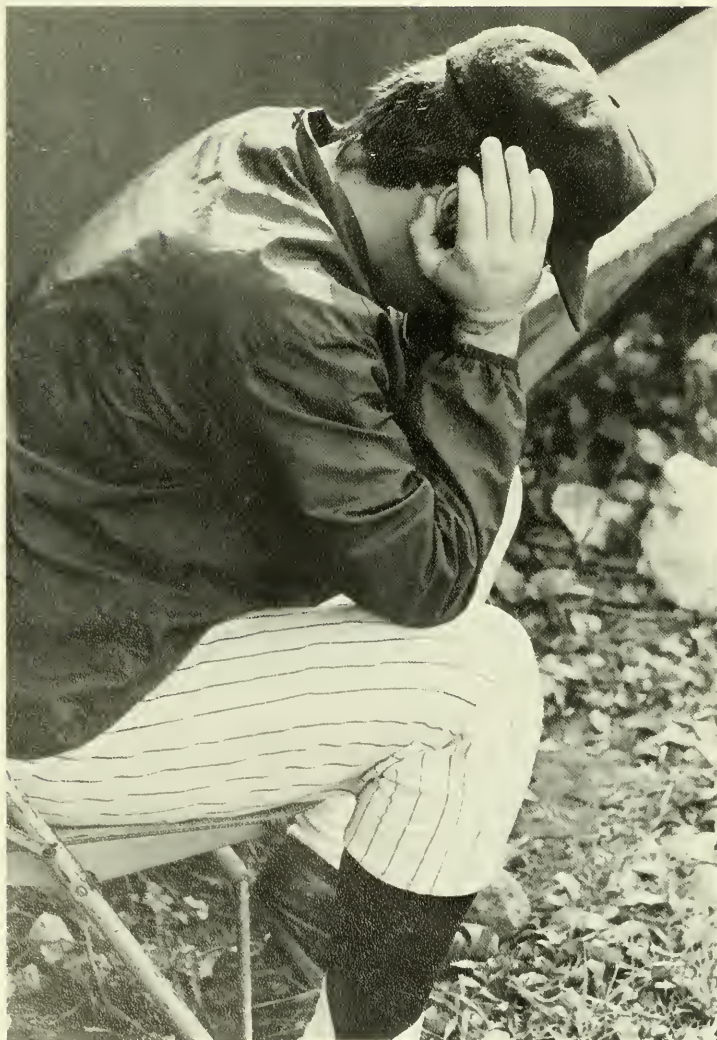

Kids aren't scared

there is no pretense.

Play for more than you can afford to lose,

Intramurals are an important part of the athletic life here at A.U. Through the course of the year men and women participate in the varied program offered by the athletic department. For those of us who aren't quite good enough for the varsity teams or don't have time to practice every day, they are the perfect answer to the problem of inactivity. Activities range from such diverse areas as knee-football and touch football to bowling, swimming, wrestling, basketball, etc. There is something for anyone who is at all disposed towards sports. They begin with the commencement of school in the fall and run through the entire school year. The program is highly successful and somewhat too much so according to its director Billy Coward, who feels that the facilities are quite inadequate to meet the great demand and enthusiasm of the students.

and you will learn the game.

Organizations Rushed to finish a Short Semester

IT WAS THE BEST OF TIMES . . .

This year, the Student Senate gave reason to hope that the Association may deserve a place in the AU community. At the very least, its Friday afternoon meetings provided guaranteed entertainment for all.

IT WAS THE WORST OF TIMES . . .

As Henry M. Roberts turned over in his grave, the Senate took special delight in re-interpreting parliamentary procedure. Convinced that the sun rises and falls upon third floor MGC, the Association addressed itself to the important matters of the campus, outer community, and of course, spring elections.

IT WAS THE AGE OF WISDOM, IT WAS THE AGE OF FOOLISHNESS . . .

The Senate did finally get around to support American withdrawal from Vietnam. It led the fight to open university facilities to the November Moratorium participants. It helped establish the AU Multiple Emergency Center, underwrote the campus anti-pollution drive, called for student membership on the Board of Trustees, and delved into the possibilities of a student trust fund. On the other hand, it rejected an honors student as too incompetent to be on the University court, decided that editors weren't qualified to be full members of the Student Publications Board, and concluded that if class government was good enough for the thirties, it's good enough for the seventies as well. And, in its fight against communism, the All-American Senate established club football.

IT WAS THE EPOCH OF BELIEF . . .

This year's Freshman Delegation was no worse or better than those of the past. Many an upperclass senator, however, did consider dousing them with a bucket of cold water.

IT WAS THE EPOCH OF INCREDULITY . . .

The Junior Class Delegation, more commonly known as the Cult of the Green Turtleneck Sweaters, provided staunch opposition to the progressive Whitmore Administration. Never has one delegation said "nay" against so many things. IT WAS THE SEASON OF LIGHT, IT WAS THE SEASON OF DARKNESS . . .

The Sophomore Delegation distinguished themselves from the Freshman only by their chronological age difference. The Senior Delegation repeatedly proved itself worthy of the faith and trust its constituents gave them. It was not unusual for one of the six senior statesmen to come into a senate meeting and ask, "Well, boys, how do I vote today?"

Bob Whitmore found out that there is indeed a big jump from the comptrollership to the presidency. Vice President Jim Lazarus proved how far a smile and a pretty face can go. Meanwhile, Comptroller Artie Ruderman finally found out how many dimes there are in five dollars. As for the few girls that did sit on the Senate, most of the male members were thoroughly convinced that women do, indeed, belong in the kitchen.

IT WAS THE SPRING OF HOPE . . .

The Student Association did provide hope that it may one day serve the student body.

IT WAS THE WINTER OF DISPAIR . . .

The tragedy is that too few senators realize that most students feel they can jolly well live without them.

WAMU, the student operated station at AU, had a year of expansion and development. In order to bring local colleges together, the Washington Intercollegiate Network was devised, sending WAMU programming to Trinity College and George Washington University, as well as receiving programs from GW. The station's broadcasting hours were expanded to nearly 24 hours a day, and news coverage of campus and world news was increased. For the November 15th Moratorium, WAMU was the anchor station of a college network of over 100 stations.

WAMU is financed by the Student Association and advertising sold by staff members. The staff is made up completely of students, whose duties range from news coverage to disk jockey and sales work.

Five or six years after an editor of The Eagle decided to "go twice a week," the paper returned to weekly publication. Along with another apparently backward step, the cut-back allowed a consolidation of effort to produce tighter editions. As student attention turned to academic governance and issues, the paper began its first regular coverage of the University Senate. In recognition of its less immediate role as a weekly, the Eagle, under the direction of Steve Behrens, adopted a pictorial front page with large-type blurbs on stories inside. Ray Avrutis modeled BVD's, Stu Kaufer and Alex Ajay needed the police education program, and professors pursued a lonely haggle over mission statements in the pages of the Eagle.

Pressure to get the news fell on two hard-working news editors, Scott Custin in the fall, and Ginnie Rhodes in the spring. Organization suffered without a managing editor in the fall, but senior Jim Lawrence returned to his old job his last semester at AU. Marty Bronstein, Fredda Zuckerman, Rose Stoll and Mike Rierstein formed the most effective and amenable ad staff in Eagle history. These and numerous other individuals made their commitment, some almost unlimited, to produce a better paper.

Singers

Musical entertainment for AU and the community was provided this year, as in the past, by three distinct groups: AU Orchestra, conducted by Professor Thomas H. Hill, AU Chorale and AU Singers both under the direction of Mr. Vito E. Mason.

AU Chorale provided a good outlet for a select group of vocalists to express their talent. They were enjoyed by all at their Christmas and Spring concerts.

Singers, a smaller and more select group of the best AU voices highlights each year with a 10 day tour across the country. This year their trip took them to Montreal. This group was also called upon throughout the year to perform a variety of musical pieces in the Washington area. It was at the request of the White House, that Singers had the opportunity to demonstrate their ability at a Sunday service in front of the President and several congressional and cabinet members.

Chorale

Orchestra

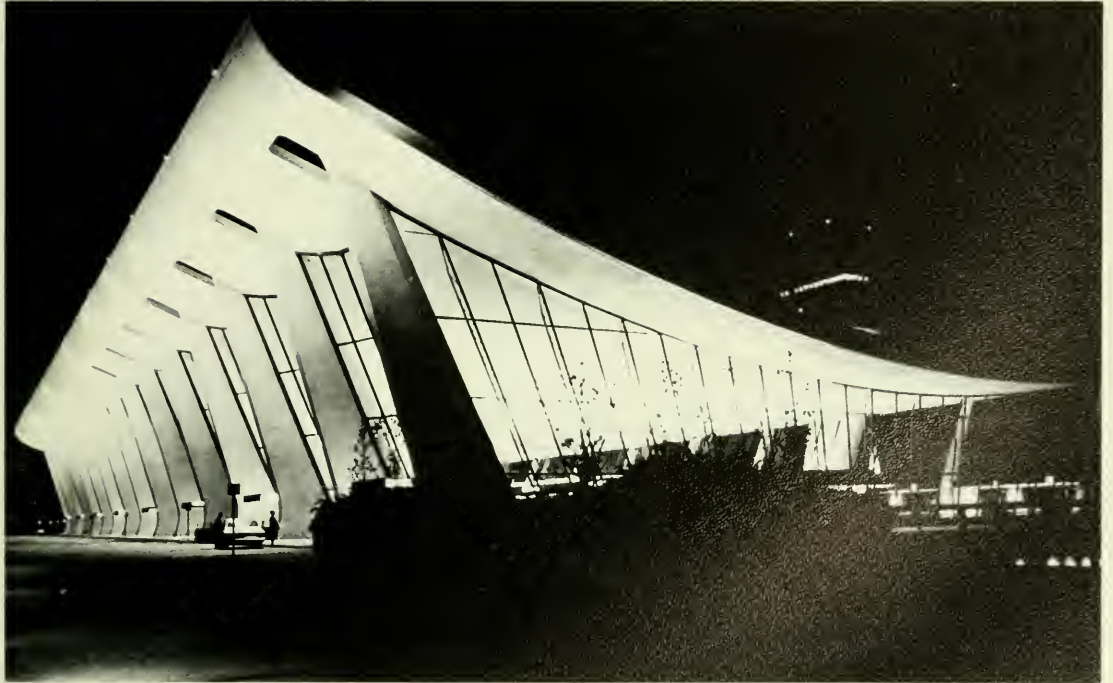

Got to move on,
got to travel, walk away my blues.

Intersession yielded a six-week relief as the new school calendar was further put into effect. Those who stayed for classes and credit offered by several departments found an empty campus, while the majority of students either traveled across the world or went home to work and/or relax from finals and the previous short term. A group of photography students set out for Mexico only to return to a confused registration, crowded lines in the bookstore, and the well-known routine of school and classes. The lengthy vacation hardly seemed real, as its memories quickly faded into second semester.

FUTILITY

The cold weather brought A.U. athletes indoors for the winter. With Fall behind them, the accent changed to the basketball court, the swimming pool, and the wrestling mats. Basketball enjoyed somewhat limited success this year under the new coach but the team lost some heartbreakers to some highly ranked opposition. The teams wins over Syracuse and George Washington were especially rewarding ones. Swimming was a success here this year, as it has been for quite a while, and the tankmen racked up another impressive season with the addition of some fresh talent. Things look even brighter for their future success. Wrestling rounded off the winter sports and the team had a good season. Several outstanding personal performances sparked the effort, and the new coach seemed to be headed for success. Athletes involved in sports this winter had to be especially dedicated as they worked out in the snow, while the majority of the student body rested for six weeks.

Winter Sports

During the second semester, the AU Theatre gave the University Community some innovative and creative talent in both direction and acting. The wide acclaim which "Apple Tree", an Annex production, received, is perhaps a tribute to the outstanding professionalism of this all-student work. Milan Kundera's "The Owners of the Keys", is one of the new experimental plays from Czechoslovakia. A variety of mechanical and set techniques were employed as the audience was placed in a situation watching two scenes at once.

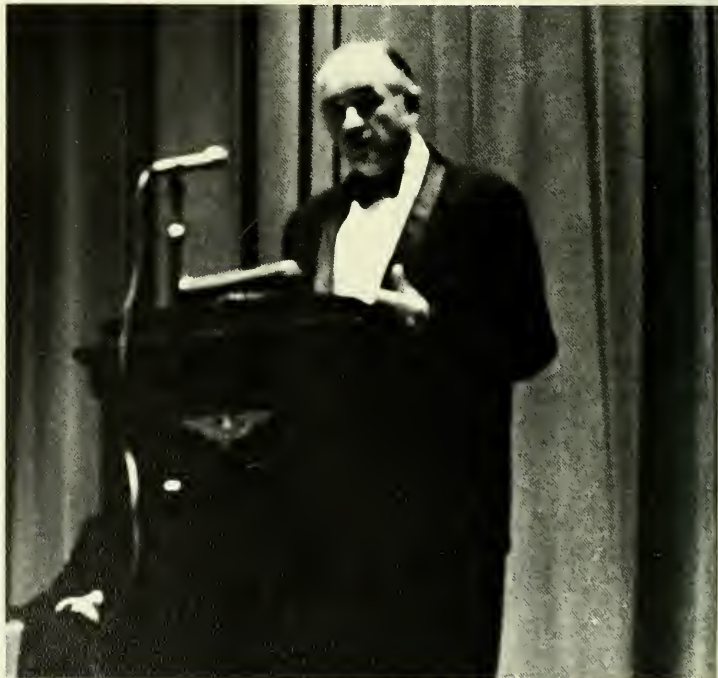

In anticipation of the November 15 Moratorium, The University & Revolution course presented Abbie Hoffman who spoke of his experiences at, and his opinions about, the Chicago trial. The Spring semester saw a political trend in speakers when Frank Mankiewicz, sponsored by the Kennedy Political Union, Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans, sponsored by the School of Business, and Hubert H. Humphrey, sponsored by the Washington College of Law, spoke on a variety of topics.

To Be or Not to Be:

Spring saw the beginning of the Tennis, Golf and Track seasons for the year. Rugby was back after a championship Fall season in a tough league and competitors for the Spring season were rated top-notch. The Baseball team also came back with high hopes after a strong finish in the Fall. The Track team started the season uncertain of success due to weakness in many areas. However, there was strength in some highly rated individuals. Tennis looked forward to a good season as a large number of students went out for the team and old talent returned. The Golf team was back looking ahead to a strong season behind experienced players and new recruits.

Outstanding Senior Athletes

Rich Tomford

Due to the outstanding achievement and high standards set by two of AU's senior athletes, the TALON, in conjunction with the Athletic Department, has decided to award this perennial honor to two deserving men.

Rich Tomford, from North Merrick, New York, has an amazing 48-3-1 record through four years of wrestling. As a freshman he was a runner-up in the D.C. Amateur Athletic Union meet at 145 lbs. In Tomford's sophomore year, still at 145 lbs., he was a runner-up in the Mason Dixon Conference. Last year he was the Mason Dixon Conference Champ at 152 lbs.

This year, as captain of the wrestling team, he led the team to its first winning season in history and the team looked for a fine performance from Rich in the M.A.C. Championships.

Gordon Stiles, hailing from the District, was elected to the All Middle Atlantic Conference, in the forward position, several times this year. He's only the seventh A.U. basketball player to score over 1,000 points. Stiles scored 1,012 points in his 63 game career. Over these four years he had an average of 16.1 points and 15.6 rebounds a game. He was AU's leading scorer, and the sixth leading rebounder in the Nation this year. His extraordinary ability was highlighted in the game against Georgetown in which he had 28 rebounds and in the LaSalle game in which he scored 31 points.

Oh! but I got all that, too.
It is exposed forever on the sensi-

SELECTED FACULTY

Dr. Donald Derby, Secretary of the University, joined the AU faculty in 1947 as an Assistant Professor of History. During his long service here (1947-1969), he served as Assistant to the President, Provost of the University, Dean of Administration, University Dean, and as Vice President: Dean of Faculties. He was named University Secretary in 1968.

In this position, he served as Secretary of the University (Faculty) Senate and as AU's Faculty—Personnel Records Officer. His status placed him in the University Cabinet.

Dr. Derby was born in New York City on May 14, 1908. He received his B.A. from Bowdoin College in Maine in 1931, and earned both his Master's and his Ph.D. at Harvard University. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

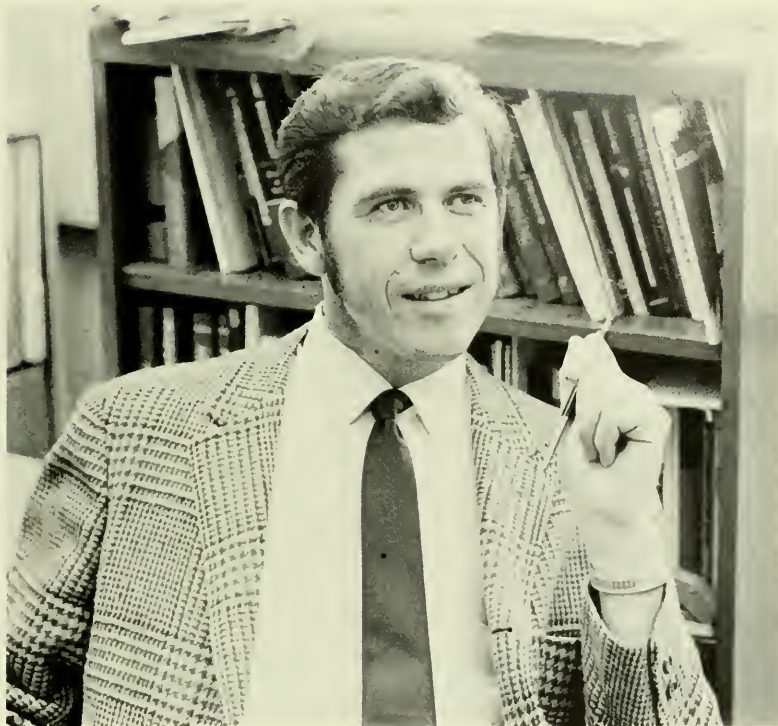

From 1942-46 he rose to the rank of Captain with the Army Security Agency, receiving a War Department Staff Citation for "exceptional resourcefulness and organizational ability." Upon his discharge from military service in 1946, he joined the National Archives in Washington as a researcher and writer.

On July 10, 1969 Donald Derby died while vacationing with his family in Massachusetts. The following day President George Williams eulogized Dr. Derby in his message which stated, "Dr. Derby served the University loyally and well as a faculty member and administrator since 1947. His death is a profound personal loss to us all as well as a great loss to the University and to the academic world at large... All who have been privileged to work closely with him will miss his friendship, his deep commitment to this University, and his warm relationship with colleagues and students."

It is in respect to his memory that we dedicate and establish this new section in the 1970 TALON honoring those previous and present members of the AU Faculty who exemplify the high achievements and characteristics of Dr. Derby.

After receiving school-wide nominations, a special screening committee of administrators and students discussed the 45 nominees and 10 were chosen to appear as SELECTED FACULTY for 1970. These people are being honored for their distinguished role in the university community and are recognized on the basis of their perception, enthusiasm, and most important, their continued interest in their work and students and in campus affairs.

And let there be no purpose in friendship save the deepening of the spirit,
 . . . And let your best be for your friend.
 If he must know the ebb of your tide, let him know its flood also.
 For what is your friend that you should seek him with hours to kill?
 Seek him always with hours to live.
 For it is his to fill your need,
 but not your emptiness.
 And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and sharing of pleasures.
 For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed.

Think of a small, select brotherhood of individuals sharing the common bond of friendship and you have Alpha Sigma Phi. A brotherhood as varied as its purposes, the Alpha Sigs have created the "ideal" tight-knit fraternity. A Saturday night costume party, a Sunday picnic at Great Falls, a boat ride on the Potomac, the annual Fall Sweetheart Dance, the weekly Sunday night meeting, all are part of Alpha Sigma Phi. An Alpha Sig working in the book store or a disc jockey at WAMU, sponsoring a basketball pep rally and the Sig Olympics, or raising money through Laurel and Hardy Film Festivals . . . winning the fraternity basketball, volleyball, and swimming sports competition or learning to lose in other sports, we always try to keep the prime purpose of our fraternity clearly in mind, "To Better the Man". An unknown face in the crowd, a rush party, the bid, a pledge, the growing friendships, and finally the pride of becoming a brother of Alpha Sigma Phi—our goal fulfilled.

"Alpha Chi Omega, to thee our song shall rise . . ."

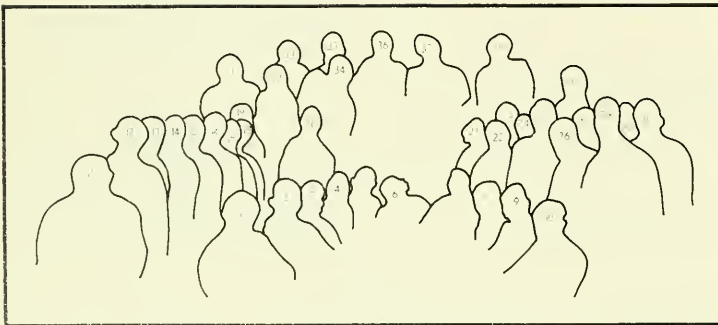

Beta Rho chapter of Alpha Chi Omega, a sisterhood of unity, of friendship, of involvement. Outstanding girls working together to ever seek the heights. Diverse activities including WAMU, the AU theater, SA, WRA, AU publications, and Woman's Sports. An active social season highlighted by a Halloween "come as you are" party, a Christmas party, and a Spring Formal. Alpha Chi Omega—Outstanding Sorority on campus for the second consecutive year, scholastic honors, members of Adelphi Panaristae. A unit working together to show their best at Sig Olympics and Songfest.

Alpha Chi Omega Friendship: a warm, sympathetic heart; a kidnapping to William and Mary College, a trip to Gifford's for ice cream; a kind word; a smile; and a prank or a birthday surprise. A sorority of many distinct individuals as friends. A chapter of love.

Alpha Chi Omega involvement: A chapter active in philanthropy by adopting and supporting an Indian girl. Sisters working on library and theater funds. Involvement in SA and coordinating committees. Young Democrats and Young Republicans. Community activities. Striving for a new AU. Alpha Chi—rally.

Alpha Chi Omega: olive green and red—a lyre pin of pearls striking in harmony the chords of "My Symphony"—Alpha Chi Omega, a sisterhood involved, aware, active, NOW!

Whether discussing foreign policy in Chinese, experimenting in the lab, or teaching in elementary schools, Delta Gammas are individuals.

The Delta Gamma Sisters find themselves among sports enthusiasts, international and national travelers, the socially conscience, and the amorous hunters.

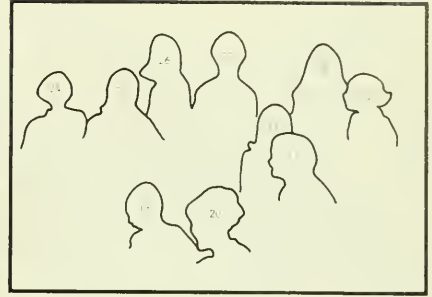

This all creates more fun and varied programs. D.G.'s can find their bag in powderpuff football, car rallies, government speakers, mixers, a discussion with the faculty advisor, Mr. Savage, or reading to the blind at the Library of Congress.

Surprise cookies or P.J. trips to Annapolis or National Airport show the creativity found in the unified group. Even though Delta Gamma can be found in all parts of life, on and off campus, their individuality makes a better sisterhood.

The sisters of Beta Iota of Kappa Delta have completed another year at the AU campus—gladdened by the addition of two outstanding pledge classes, and saddened by the loss of those graduating sisters. This has been a great year for Kappa Delta—a year in which the close bonds of sisterhood have brought warmth and true friendship to all its members. The Kappa Delta's enjoy being together and doing the things that make them happy—and make others happy.

Happiness is the KDs in Hades skit for rush; bid day dinners; a Halloween party; carving pumpkins for the children at Sibley Hospital. Happiness is getting a pyramid up; a letter from our adopted brother Alfred; discovering one of your sisters is pinned or engaged. Happiness is knowing that your efforts are helping a small child at the Crippled Children's Hospital; a KD parents weekend in the spring; a brunch with another sorority; a cider and donut party after Sig Olympics; an informal get together in the Tavern. Happiness is being a part of the best sorority we know. Happiness is being a KD!

Changing institutions breed changing individuals. The synthesis that is a part of American higher education breeds a new species of student. A student seeking his own individuality, his own identity. Yet the concept of the group, the notion of responsibility and obligation to others, the ideas of consideration and community live within the framework of a fraternity.

Phi Epsilon Pi justifies its existence as a mutual need. A need for the individual to find others and to find himself through the group. The fraternity becomes a vehicle. A vehicle for self-expression, creativity and commitment to things other than one's self. Activities offer the channels for participation. Active in all forms of campus activity, the fraternity attempts to fill the gap. It provides a house, a physical symbol of community. Sports and social activities offer the outlets. Commitment to community activities offers the opportunity for conscious involvement.

Perhaps most important, Phi Ep is a fraternity completely emersed in a tradition of being the best, and offering the most. A heritage of sports and social excellence has built a group that is consciously aware of change, aware of its own limitations, and aware of college reality.

The last two years, Phi Sigma Kappa has been chosen the best fraternity at A.U. Something extraordinary must be offered by Phi Sig in order to deserve this honor. It is. When people join our house, they become involved in a beautiful experience. It's an experience of giving and receiving. Helping and being helped. It's relating to other people. We get together. We accept people for what they are and ask only that they be themselves. It's really beautiful. It's what it's all about—how to live with people. Different types of people. Phi Sig offers true brotherhood. And brotherhood is relevant.

Leave it to the Phi Sigs to do something new and unconventional—like wading in a fountain on a chilly fall day. This is the type of enthusiasm and spirit which pervades the sisterhood in all we do, be it applying for membership in the Mouskateers during Song-fest, planning a clothes drive for Junior Village, or conducting a retreat, despite a flu epidemic.

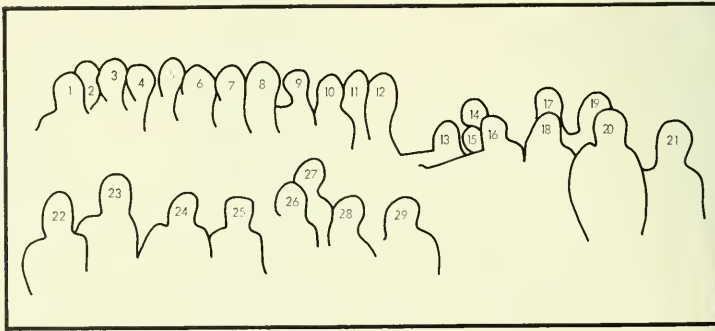

Phi Sig attracts the kind of girl who doesn't mind being awakened at 5:00 for breakfast by over-anxious pledges, or who really enjoys a 7:00 a.m. kidnap to National Airport.

On a more serious side, she is also the type of girl who sells candy for the Kidney Foundation, tutors in the Inner City, and helps out another sister with a problem.

There is nothing more enjoyable than seeing the sisters double-date with their parents on Parents' Weekend, or welcome back the alums who have returned to see our pyramid grow.

Recalling experiences such as these brings to mind the warm glow of that "special Phi Sig feeling" which is a part of every pledge, active, and alum. It's just this feeling that keeps us warm and smiling while wading in a fountain on a chilly fall day.

The world is seen through many eyes, but the blinds of habit limit our vision. How dulled we become by experience . . . not only to the beauty around us but to that within us. A year has gone . . . four years have gone . . . perhaps all to be misplaced within the pigeon holes of our minds. The seasons changed, as did the people . . . so much touched me, bended me, moulded me. Yet, I remain unformed until I reach out.

Will I ever get to know the stranger in the mirror? Each day is new, each day I begin . . . there is so much more to understand. Let's remember childhood when we saw the world without names for the first, bright time. Let us wander through its mystery and marvel at our every age and stage. I want to find my self as much as I want to find you and need your self to find me. Come, we'll look, taste, feel and be . . . at peace with ourselves, and at one with the world.

I see myself over and over again . . .
each time in a new dimension . . .
each time hoping that I will understand a little better . . .
and appreciate a little more my being here.
